Mahjong-BritishRules.com Store Guide

These cards are useful references to have to hand when playing the game. There are a few different types....

Laminated playing aid

Two sided, A4 playing aid covering the following topics:

- Preparing to play
- Scoring
- Special hands

This is only available in the UK.

Playing aid cards

These (two sided) playing aids are available worldwide from my Zazzle store.

The first six cards give a complete description of the game using the BMJA rules. The last just describes the goulash. The ones for Scoring, Special hands and The goulash are especially useful to have to hand.

The cards come in two sizes: 5" x 7" (12.7cm x 17.8cm) and 6 1/2" x 8 3/4" (16.5cm x 22.2cm) for those who prefer a larger print size.

A clear, illustrated explanation of the British Mah-Jong Association (BMJA) rules

- * What a Mah-Jong set contains
- * How to set out and deal the tiles
- * How then to play the game
- * How to score and settle the tally payments once someone has gone Mah-Jong

The basic rules of Mah-Jong are quite easily grasped (it's a bit like the card game "Rummy"), but there are a number of complexities. So, for the beginner, there is a chapter which breaks the rules down into easy stages - taking you gradually towards the complete rules.

There is a chapter on Mah-Jong strategy - how best to play to increase your chances of winning - and another which answers a multitude of questions that visitors to my website (Mahjong-BritishRules.com) have asked about the BMJA rules.

CONTENTS

- * Introduction
- * Equipment
- * Learning the Game by Stages
- * The Game
- * Scoring
- * "Mah-Jong (Know the Game)" Corrections & Clarifications
- * Mah-Jong Strategy
- * Questions Answered
- * Glossary

PDF version of book

Click on the picture to buy and download this PDF book

This has the same content as the 3rd edition of the printed version of the book but with updates to the following chapters:

- * Scoring, "Mah-Jong (Know the Game)"
- * Corrections & Clarifications
- * Questions Answered

... and new sections on Mah-Jong Playing Aids and Mah-Jong Gifts.

The book is available worldwide from my Gumroad store

If you using a smartphone I would advise that you download and view the free sample of the book first to check that you can read it OK.

Here's an explanation of the PDF version

You are allowed to print your personal copy.

Please note that VAT will be added so the book will cost £7.79

Most of the graphics used in these designs come from my website, Mahjong-BritishRules.com.

Although there are some products which relate specifically to the BMJA rules, I hope most of them will appeal to all Mah-Jong players - and a good few to the general public.

Here's another way to find my Zazzle store:

- * Search for Zazzle (using Google or another search engine)
- * Enter "bmja" in Search for products
- * Click on one of the products shown
- * Click on the link in: Designed for you by Mah.Jong.British.Rules

This allows you to play any type of Mah-Jong using small cards – a less expensive option than tiles and easier to take on holiday.

The 144 cards (plus jokers & Riichi red fives) are provided on 10 large cards, So some careful cutting out is required.

Check out this guide to buying and the instructions before purchasing.
